

Creating Your Blogger Blog

1. Go to Blogger.com and click on Create a Blog. If you already have a Google account, sign in.

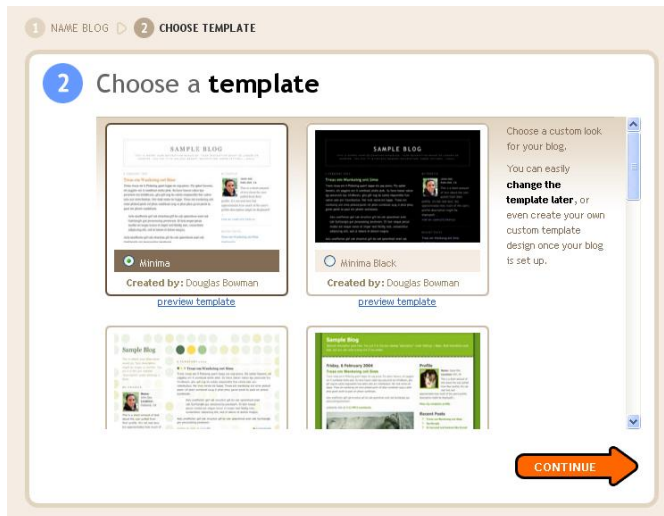

2. You can use whatever email you wish when creating a Google account. Fill in the remaining fields and click on the Continue button.

3. Name your blog, check availability (if that blog name is already taken, you'll need to choose a different name) copy the word verification, and click Continue.

4. Choose a template. Not to worry, you can change your template whenever you wish.

5. You're done! Click on Start Blogging.

6. Write your first post. Welcome to the blogosphere!
